		Case 1.04-CV-12 TATE LOST I.TOMO OF LIGHT
	۸	9	.		11
1	Α	Not about this probation, but there	1		lifted?
2		were letters to him about the		Α	We we discussed the results of the
1		subsequent extension of his training,	3		test right then and there, and he knew
) _		which would be equivalent to another	4	_	that at the time, yes.
5	_	probation.	5	Q	Who were the examiners on the second
6	Q	Do you recall when your face-to-face	6		test?
7		meeting with Raj took place prior to	Ī	Α	I was, Dr. Festin was, and Dr. Swett
8		your sending this e-mail?	8		was, Festin, F-e-s-t-i-n, and Swett,
9	Α	I don't remember the exact dates but	9	_	Chester Swett, S-w-e-t-t.
10		after he took the oral exam and didn't	10	Q	Who were the examiners on the first
11		pass, that in itself would prohibit	11	_	time?
12		him from going on to the next year			Dr. Festin and I and Dr. Alexander.
13		because it's one of the requirements	13	Q	Was there any reason that Dr. Alexander
14		for progression that he have passed	14		did not participate in the second oral
15		his oral exam. So it was sort of on	15	_	examination of Raj?
16		the on the face of it that he would		Α	Well, I'm not sure if he were
17		be on probation until he took the exam	17		available that day. Secondly,
18		over. So I asked him to take the exam	18		Dr. Swett was chief chief of the
19		over. I tried to encourage him to	19		service at that point, and we just
20		take it over. He said no, we were	20		thought it would be better a better
21		prejudiced against him, and he wasn't	21		policy to have somebody higher up be
22		going to take it over because the	22		participating in the test because we
23		results would be the same. I	23	_	knew that Raj was upset about it.
1.0		disagreed with him, and I said he	24	Q	Were there any letters or prior
(+
		10			12
1		10 would need to take it over, and once	1		12 e-mails to Raj stating that he was in
2	;	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off	2		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation,
2 3		would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation.	2 3		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails?
2 3 4	-	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.]	2 3 4	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints
2 3 4 5		would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he	2 3 4 5		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when
2 3 4 5 6		would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation.	2 3 4 5 6		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not
2 3 4 5 6 7	Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were	2 3 4 5 6 7		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because
2 3 4 5 6 7 8	Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and	2 3 4 5 6 7 8		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9		would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9	A	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9		e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10		would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12	A	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	A	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14	A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13	A	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true.
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A Q A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17	A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation? Not this time. It took him over a	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of peak at Dr. Badgaiyan, Doctor?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18	A Q A A	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation? Not this time. It took him over a year to take the test over.	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of peak at Dr. Badgaiyan, Doctor? MR. FARQUHAR: I'm just going
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A Q A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation? Not this time. It took him over a year to take the test over. And when he took the test over, he	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of peak at Dr. Badgaiyan, Doctor? MR. FARQUHAR: I'm just going to object to the phrasing "moment of
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A Q A Q	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation? Not this time. It took him over a year to take the test over, he passed?	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22	A Q A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of peak at Dr. Badgaiyan, Doctor? MR. FARQUHAR: I'm just going to object to the phrasing "moment of peak." Would you just define that?
2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19	A Q A A	would need to take it over, and once he took it over, he'd be off probation. [There was an interruption.] THE WITNESS: And passed he would be off probation. And these communications again were verbal face to face between you and Raj, correct? Right. So there were no letters on your stationery advising Raj, A, that he was formally placed on probation, is that correct? That's right. Was there any letter on your stationery advising Raj that he was off probation? Not this time. It took him over a year to take the test over. And when he took the test over, he	2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21	A Q	e-mails to Raj stating that he was in danger of getting placed on probation, letters or e-mails? There were a number of complaints about him. I don't know exactly when they started but not really. The not taking the test was the bigee because that was on our printed requirements for progression and promotion. So is it fair to say and correct me if I'm wrong is it fair to say then that Raj never got a letter from you saying you better do this, this, and this, or you're in danger of being placed on probation? That's true. Did you send this e-mail that's been marked as Exhibit 1 in a moment of peak at Dr. Badgaiyan, Doctor? MR. FARQUHAR: I'm just going to object to the phrasing "moment of